Dear Cliff,

Sorry for the slow response. We don't have an itemization that we can share of all the considerations that go into evaluating whether the manufacturing process unit exemption applies in any given circumstance. In the case of the Bloom canisters I would point you to the discussion in the letter recently sent from Region 3 to Delaware.

Happy to discuss further. Take care.

Not yet. I've been out of the office the last day and a half.

Hi Barnes,

It was good seeing you at the ELI dinner. I'm glad that the speeches were short.

Did you get a chance to check on the MPU criteria that you mentioned?

Cliff
